PRESIDENT PELLEGRINI ON THE SITUATION.

At any other time the Message which President Pellegrini delivered to Congress on Saturday would have perhaps fulfilled the expectations of the public. There is little to call forth approbation, still less to provoke censure. But when we consider that the Republic is in the throes of a tremendous crisis, and that drastic remedies are urgently called for, the milk-and-water flavor of His Excellency's sentiments is unsatisfactory. The Message might have been contained in one-tenth of its actual compass, for it is spun out into an octavo volume of 74 pages, and withal the vital question of banking and currency is treated so ambiguously that everybody is free to put any construction on it that may meet his wishes.

The first subject of interest is the Bateman Legacy, which is to be taken over by the Government by means of a new loan of £6,600,000 sterling which the contractors are to take at 80 per cent of the face value, in 5 per cent bonds. This is decidedly a good arrangement, as it insures the completion of the works at a cost of £13 per inhabitant. The original estimate was only £2,000,000. It is gratifying, however, to know that no more money will be wasted in this melancholy business.

Public Lands, according to the President, were given away in recent years in a reckless manner, the bogus concessions in late years covering an area of 60,000 sq. miles, which is more than the extent of England and Wales. One-half of these concessions have already been declared forfeit.

Much progress has been made in railways, as may be seen on comparing 1891 with the preceding year, viz:—

	1890	1891
Miles open.....	5,090	7,190
In construction..	4,560	7,870

The latter item includes not only lines actually in construction but also those under survey. It is to be hoped that some of these may be postponed for some years, as we are threatened with a surplus of railways. In the last six months the Government cancelled 17 lines, with a length of 4,770 miles. The lines actually working represent an outlay of 60 millions sterling, and those in construction an equal amount, in all 120 millions sterling, a sum far in excess of the needs or the possible earnings of the country. Mr. Cooper tells us that the bullock-carts are taking away much of the traffic of existing lines. How then can 15,000 miles of railway hope to pay suitable dividends?

The revenue in 1890 was $73,400,000 currency, which at the average rate of exchange for the year was equivalent to £5,100,000 sterling, as compared with £6,150,000 in 1883. This is an alarming decline. In the same interval the public debt has risen from $158,200,000 to $304,000,000 gold. In other words revenue has declined 16 per cent, public debt increased 92 per cent in the last 8 years. The President does not make this comparison between 1883 and 1891, either because he did not know the figures or that he refrained from shewing Congress the disastrous condition of the national finances. The picture would be still more dreadful if we were to include the debts of the Province of Buenos Ayres and of the Upper Provinces, as well as the Municipal debts. The foreign debts of the provinces and municipalities (wholly exclusive of internal debts) were in 1889 as follows:—

Province of Buenos Ayres..	8,300,000
Other provinces.....	16,200,000
Municipalities.....	5,900,000
Total.....	30,400,000

This is equivalent to 151 million gold dollars, making the total public debt 455 millions of gold dollars (or 291,000,000 sterling), besides the internal debts of the provinces and municipalities.

The above figures for debts of the provinces are taken from the "Revue Franco Sud Americaine," which is, we believe, the semi-official organ of the Argentine Government in Paris. Nevertheless it is possible that some of the provincial debts are duplicated, that is already included in the Banking loans for currency.

Pres. Pellegrini shews that the annual charge for the National Debt (exclusive of debts of provinces) is £4,000,000 sterling per annum or 80 % of the total revenue of the republic in 1890. The Moratoribus loan, however, has suspended payment during 3 years on certain foreign debts, whichwill save the Treasury an annual sum of £2,200,000 stg, thus reducing the actual burthen to £1,800,000, or about 36 per cent of revenue. His Excellency says nothing about the arrangements that may be necessary in January 1894 to prolong the Moratoribus in London for three years or six years more: nobody expects that the Republic will be able to resume payment of its coupons in 1894, with the new loan of 15 millions stg. (Moratoribus) added.

Some of the President's figures about the crisis are instructive and to the point. He shews that the stocks quoted on the Bolsa in 1889 amounted nominally to 950 millions of capital, many of them at 50 per cent premium, others at a vastly higher figure. They represented about 1,500 millions currency in 1889 and are now not over 500 millions, some being at 60 per cent, other 90 per cent, below par. Here is a loss of one thousand millions or about 60 millions sterling, besides one of 20 millions sterling in Argentine railway stocks in London.

The Government, moreover, has lost 67 millions currency in the National Bank. The two State Banks, according to His Excellency, made away with 97 millions currency and £2,600,000 in gold within the last 12 months. Nevertheless he speaks of a Special Committee to examine into the condition of the said banks and see whether they be insolvent. He says "they may in fact be perfectly solvent." In other parts of the world when a bank is unable to pay its depositors it requires no special committee for it to be declared bankrupt.

In His Excellency's remarks on the State banks and the question of a new issue there is a want of earnestness: he suggests bank-reform, and censures any more avalanches of shinplasters:

"He speaks the word of promise to the ear,
But breaks it to the heart."

He adverts to the evils of a fluctuating currency, and recommends us to adopt not bi-metallism but a silver standard, because, he adds, there is at present such a scarcity of gold in Europe that it would be impossible to borrow enough to redeem our paper-money.

A silver standard or even a cast-metal standard would be better than shin-plasters, but His Excellency is misinformed when he supposes there is a scarcity of gold in Europe. The reserves in gold of the great banks have been rising during the last 15 years, and Mr. Cernuschi (although a strenuous bi-metallist) confesses that "any arguments for bi-metallism founded on an alleged scarcity of gold are fallacious." At present it would be difficult for Argentina to borrow 20 millions sterling of gold in Europe, because the credit of the Republic is at a low ebb

We heard so much of the proposed Banco Unico during the last month that we are disappointed not to see any mention of it in the Message. We regret also that Pres. Pellegrini has not summed up in these words:—"The "crisis must continue until a general "liquidation take place, and for this "purpose we must begin with the State "Banks, which have tended so power-"fully to bring about the crisis."

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

In view of the importance that must necessarily be attached to the President's solemn declarations before Congress, we insert at length His Excellency's views, statements, and figures on the revenue and expenditure of the government and on finances in general. Referring to revenue and expenditure, the President states that the former amounted in 1890 to a rough total of $73,407,670 m/n, viz:—

$68,476,555 papor
$1,972,666 gold.

Meantime the expenditure in 1890 amounted to $92,853,846 m/n. There was thus a deficit of $19,446,176 m/n, which has been covered in part with revenue of the current year. At the end of 1890 the Deuda Exigible, or Treasury Bills payable on demand, amounted to $10,174,548 m/n paper and $700,691 m/n gold: of the total $6,683,886 m/n were bills undergoing the ordinary procedure previous to payment in the Treasury; the balance, say $3,490,662 m/n, consists of bills that at that date had not yet fallen due. The heavy deficit of 1890 arose from extraordinary expenditure outside the ordinary budget: these extraordinary expenses amounted to the enormous total of $30,884,379 m/n, thus increasing the budget 30%.

The Customs revenue for the first months of the current year shows a considerable falling-off, as might have been expected in view of the large dispatch of merchandise in the month of December and first fortnight of January. In the belief that the Gold Duty Bill would be made law on the first of the year, the commercial body increased its orders abroad and an enormous dispatch of goods took place in the Custom House during the period mentioned: the result was a stagnation in February, and in March only mere symptoms of revival visible. In the present month of April affairs are resuming their normal march, and the revenue of the 24 days of the month amounts to $4,711,953 m/n., against $9,346,265 for the whole quarter ending March 30th.

The budget of the expenditure of this year was fixed at $39,413,373 m/n paper and $19,689,604 m/n gold; however, the moratorium has enabled us to reduce the expenses of the year to $8,904,652 m/n gold; this amount includes the service on the 4½ % gold guarantee bonds of the free banks, on the new loan, and on those two old loans which are not included in the moratorium.

The service on the debt that will be met in bonds this year will amount to 13½ millions; including the service on the bonds that will be issued to purchase the City Improvement Works, the total will amount to 15 millions. The Ways and Means have been estimated at $26,060,000 gold and $26,555,000 paper. In spite of the falling-off in the Customs' revenue for the first months of the year, there need be no apprehension as to the accuracy of the estimates of the revenue in gold; not so, however, with the estimates in paper. Thus the taxes on the banks, their circulation and deposits are estimated at $7,302,574, but in view of the bad situation of some of these banks the returns will fall short. On the other hand it is not to be expected that the excise will yield $8,400,000. The out-put of beer is small in winter and the tax in January, one of the months of greatest consumption, was not levied.

With regard to corn distilleries the tax on alcohol was not levied in the first quarter of the year, when the whole maize crop was bought up; the new crop of maize has failed owing to drought and locusts.

There is no doubt that these taxes will sooner or later become most important factors in the revenue, for the Customs returns threaten to fall off as national industries overcome foreign competition. We already defy competition in alcohol, wax matches, and boot and shoe industry; we shall soon be able to say as much of sugar and wines which to-day contribute so heavily to the customs revenue; excise will then come to the front to make up for the decrease in the customs. The condition of the Treasury, nevertheless, may be considered satisfactory up to the present. The suspension of the National Bank, which holds large amounts belonging to the Treasury, has been a great inconvenience, but there is no reason to doubt that the revenue will more than suffice for ordinary expenditure and leave a large balance wherewith to reorganize the currency.

THE PUBLIC DEBT.

The crisis has completely changed the position of the National debt, not only in its absolute figures of value, but in relation to other burdens of the Treasury. The funding of the service on the debt and on guarantees puts off the payment of obligations which the Treasury is not able to meet to-day, but it increases the volume of debt and the annual service which must be paid later on in money.

Furthermore, the repeal of the City Improvement Act will call for a new issue of foreign bonds to the amount of 25½ millions more or less. The service on guaranteed railways will also be larger, as many new extensions have been opened to traffic.

This increase in the annual service on the debt and on guarantees we may reckon at a round million gold dollars.

During the year 1890 all our obligations have been met, in spite of the revolutionary days of July and the financial disturbances in London last November. These obligations include the service falling due on the 1st January of this year. All subsequent foreign obligations and guarantees, with the exception of the service of two exeptional loans, are within the clauses of the Funding Loan or Moratorium and are payable in bonds.

The debt stands now as follows:—

	$ gold
Foreign debt.....	157,100,330
Guaranteed bonds of the Free Banks gaining interest ..	90,417,333
	$ paper.
Public 5% bonds	1,225,631
Patriotic Loan of last March.....	42,000,000

These figures will be increased this year by—

	$ gold
City Improvements ..	33,000,000
Bonds of the Funding Loan, after discount of sinking funds....	12,000,000

The total debt will then amount to—
291,547,563 $ gold
43,225,631 $ paper
which will call for an annual service of
19,723,343 $ gold
2,581,281 $ paper
including interest and sinking funds, payable as follows:—

11,744,350 $ gold in bonds of the Funding Loan.
7,978,993 $ gold in money.
2,581,281 $ 1¾ in paper.

The negotiations carried on in Europe with regard to the debts of the Provinces, and which are based on the application of the service on the 4½ % gold guarantee bonds belonging to the Provincial Bank to that purpose, will probably considerably reduce the gold service, as bonds of the Funding Loan would do the service. Our financial commissioner in London, Dr. Victorino de la Plaza, is in charge of this negotiation, and is carrying it out with much ability and patriotism.

A SEA FIGHT.

THE DEADLY TORPEDO.

The latest advices from Chile have come a long way round, from Paris, dated Sunday. They say:—"The stranding of the cruiser Esmeralda is not confirmed. While shipping arms in a Californian port the Itala was seized by the authorities, but she got up steam and dashed away with the judicial agents on board. Several U. S. cruisers were sent in pursuit, but she showed them her heels."

The Imparcial of Valparaiso decribes as follows the fight off Caldera:—

Before leaving Huasca Captain Salva of the Admiral Lynch called his crew on deck and briefly harangued them in these words:—"The task before us is one of victory or death; let those who have no stomach for it remain behind." A piercing and enthusiastic hurrah was his answer. Not a single man would miss the fight. At dawn on the 23rd the two torpedo boats were within 150 metres of the Blanco Encalada. Captain Moraga, of the Condell, who commanded in chief, claimed the first shot, and when within a hundred metres of the ironclad, let fly two torpedoes. Both missed, and then the Lynch steamed ahead, and fired a torpedo at 50 metres range; it missed, merely grazing the stern of the Blanco. Then came a boom from the ironclad and a shell burst on the starboard prow of the Lynch, wounding two men slightly. Commander Salva then shouted to Captain Fuentes. "It is your turn, Fuentes, to fire the next torpedo." "All right, Captain," replied the latter, "but let us get within twenty metres of her." "All right; full speed ahead!" shouted the young Commander. Round flew the screw; every man held his breath and clenched his teeth; the guns of the Blanco and of the forts began to play on the Lynch; on she dashed, as if about to ram the ironclad: the 20 metres distance is reached, the torpedo is fired, the water under the Blanco heaves; she lurches heavily to port, then to starboard, lying like a dying whale, unable to move, on her beam ends, and in two minutes she sank. The torpedo had exploded on her starboard side right amidships Those of the crew who were on deck rushed to the boats; and some few were saved.

The Condell, meanwhile, had spied the Aconcagua and steamed for her, keeping in a line with her prow, to avoid her fire, while the Lynch left the sinking Blanco at full speed to cut off the Aconcagua's retreat; but the latter was soon going at full speed, firing vigorously as she went. The torpedo boats were closing on her when smoke was seen to the north. "The Esmeralda!" was the cry on board both the Condell and the Lynch; the former changed her helm and sped away to the South, while the Lynch kept on her course towards the advancing stranger. Soon it was found to be the British ironclad Warspite, and the Lynch turned on her heel like a row-boat and went at racing speed after the Aconcagua; but the latter had availed of the fright given to her foes by the Warspite and was snugly anchored under the guns of the forts.

Many incidents of the fight are reported. As the first torpedo was fired a sailor of the Condell shouted "Down with her! Balmaceda for ever!" As midshipman Velez was crossing the deck with ammunition a shell burst over his head and knocked him down. When some sailors rushed to raise him he jumped to his feet saying, "All right boys: no harm done!" The shell had of course splintered upwards, and he did not receive even a scratch. Major Pacheco had his leg smashed by a shot, and the sailors cauterized the wound with red hot irons in the very hottest of the action. Many other acts of bravery and coolness are reported; and the whole fight shows that steam has not changed the conditions of naval warfare so much as supposed, and that dash and daring will continue to carry the day on the ocean wave, in spite of iron armour, long range guns, etc. etc.

THE WAR IN CHILE.

(From our own correspondent.)

Valparaiso, Ap. 27.

On Saturday, 19th inst., the torpedo catchers Lynch and Condell left, accompanied by the Imperial and a small torpedo launch, for the north, their object being to destroy what they could of the rebels. On the following Wednesday the rumour ran that the Condell had fouled the Imperial in Quinteros; also that she had burnt her boiler tubes again, and that the small torpedo launch took men from Lever and Murphy's works to repair damages. I believe something of the sort did happen. It is certain that all three were in Caldera on the Wednesday or Thursday morning, and, finding the Blanco Encalada (Admiral's ship) there, as also the Aconcagua, the Condell let fly seven torpedoes at the former, the seventh taking effect, sinking the Blanco in less than fifteen minutes, about 100 men perishing, chiefly of the engineering department, who were occupied below cleaning and repairing, the Blanco being without steam. Meantime the Lynch and Imperial (the latter is now armed equal to any of the others) attacked the Aconcagua (sister ship to Imperial), which licked them after 4½ hours, the shore batteries firing a few shots, I believe for the rebels.

The Condell also sank another ship, believed to be a German sailing ship, though some say it was a Gulf Line steamer. They add the following yarn to it, viz.—that H.M.S. Champion was on the spot looking after the German ship, and the Condell, mistaking her for a rebel ship, let fly a torpedo, carrying away the rudder and a part of her stern. I doubt this, as I have almost undeniable proof that the Champion was in Callao at the time. Then the Condell saw a smoke and ran away, and the Lynch also. The Imperial was chased by the Aconcagua, and latest advices say she was sunk by said ship. The Condell arrived here on Friday, and was received with the usual amount of "Vivas" and bands of music, the news having been received before from Coquimbo, per Warspite and cable. The above mentioned smoke was the Warspite, from one of whose officers I heard the details. The Lynch arrived here Saturday night, and docked yesterday morning. She has some holes in her hull, but having so many water-tight compartments, as also the Condell, it would be necessary to riddle them through and through to sink them. The machinery is the most vulnerable point. I know for a fact that the rebels were only waiting the arrival of the Esmeralda (warship), and a transport with arms and ammunition from Panama, to proceed here at once: they number from 10,000 to 13,000, and landing here will get another 10,000 to join. They will probably come as soon as possible now. The Government party are awfully afraid of the 7th of the month, they having suffered reverses on every 7th since January. May will see the Battle of Valparaiso Bay, and once Valpo falls, I think Santiago will surrender, and the row end; if not, all I can say is that the Government party are mad. The P.S.N. Co.'s Pizarro has just arrived with Panama mail; she is over 10 days late, but the Company do not guarantee their time-table. Also arrived s.s. Potosi from Liverpool, with about a third of a full cargo, instead of 4000 tons. The Company must be losing heaps of money, the ships only carrying half cargo, and all delayed.

H.M.S. Warspite arrived on Saturday morning. H.M.S. Espigle is here, and has been since Acora went home, and Warspite and Champion north; Champion is not back yet.

Last night the guard-boat of the Port arrested the Commander of the Espigle while he was pulling to Warspite; they stopped his boat and made it fast to theirs to tow it inshore; but when the Commander gave orders to his men to cut the line, they let go of their own accord. For this and many other offences against the British flag have the Chilians got to answer, and I wonder at the Admiral's patience in the matter.

The U.S. Admiral has hoisted his flag on the Baltimore since last Friday; formerly it was on the Pensacola.

Yesterday (Sunday) the Mercantile Marine gave the Valparaiso Cricket Club a licking, I suppose much to their disgust; the Warspite and Acorn team bested them a week or two ago.

Business is dead here, although things go on to all appearance; in all the ports on coast things are next to paralysed, and hundreds of poor fellows out, and likely to be more before this ends, through the Company reducing staff little by little.

May 1st.

The fleet are coming soon now; the Government have ordered the Mole to be closed. There was an alarm the other night, but particulars are not to be got. I am assured that an attempt was made to blow up the Lynch whilst in dock repairing, but further I cannot find out anything.

The Lynch and Condell are now lying almost ready at the Mole for another trip. Rumour has it that Coquimbo surrendered three days ago to the fleet. Sentries are trebled and quadrupled, and the Vigilance of the Port also, by torpedo launches.

I will post this to-morrow, and only hope you may get it.

RACING.

An observation overheard by us at Belgrano on Sunday last to the effect that "there is plenty of dust although the racing is not so dusty" aptly sums up the situation: in fact, the one disagreeable incident throughout the day was the prevalence of blinding gusts of dust.

Mr. Kemmis' The MacGowan was potted for the first race, but resolutely refusing to start with the others, his backers did not even have a run for their money; the hitherto disappointing Princesa won, thanks to the excellence of the start she obtained, but she may be accounted doubly fortunate as in another fifty yards she would have been beaten out of a situation. A quintette of 2 year olds next faced the starter, and considerable time was cut to waste, Mary and Margery being extremely fractious, thereby considerably discounting their chance; Thalia once again had little difficulty in establishing her superiority. In the absence of Camors and Vendetta, the Premio Mayo was booked a good thing for Capitan Lopez, and such indeed it proved, as his two candidates finished first and second.

The six entered for the Premio Westminster turned out, and the light weight accorded to Jettatore enabled her to win at her ease. A warm favourite was next found in Patria for the 1200 metre race, but, when looking all over a winner, he stopped to nothing. A close struggle was then witnessed between Sapho and Pretty Polly, and it was the general impression that the latter had made a dead heat; great, therefore, was the surprise when the race was awarded to the Talisman filly. The last race was carried off by the much-improved Connaught who showed a clean pair of heels to a fair field.

We have to congratulate the Executive of the Hipodromo Nacional on the punctuality observed, the want of which had hitherto this year been the weak point in the management.

After a very long delay at the post, caused by the vagaries of Cap. Lopez' pair, the flag fell to a fair start. Mary immediately made play from Ceres, with Thalia next till the straight where the leader was done with, and Thalia, quickly getting the best of Ceres, went on and won easily by 2 lengths; 3 lengths between 2nd and 3rd.

Finance, on the rails, momentarily showed in front, but was soon passed by Morning Dew who cut out the work, Aventurero being now last: the latter, however, gradually ran up to the leaders, and eight hundred metres from home the two Lopez horses took command, and notwithstanding a vigorous attempt on the part of Vengador from the distance, retained their positions to the end, the 4 yr. old finishing 2 lengths in front of his stable companion, who was a neck in front of Vengador. Approaching the last turn, Pretty Polly, who had got off badly, ran through, and, entering the straight, passed Sirince and soon after got level with Sapho; from the paddock a fine race ensued, and, although Pretty Polly appeared to have much the best of it, Sapho struggled on and secured the judges' fiat by the shortest of short heads. Fine Shade, who was going very strongly at the finish, was half a length off Pretty Polly. Dividend $9.87. Place dividends; Sapho $4.80 and Pretty Polly $9.19.

A. DEBASED CURRENCY.

Macaulay says:—"It may well be doubted whether all the misery which had been brought on the English nation in a quarter of a century by bad kings, bad ministers, bad Parliaments and bad judges was equal to the misery caused in a single year by bad crowns and bad shillings. Those events, which furnish the best themes for pathetic or indignant eloquence, are not those which most affect the happiness of the great body of the people. The government of Charles and James, great as it had been, had not prevented the common business of life from going steadily and prosperously on. . . . But when the great instrument of exchange became thoroughly deranged, all trade, all industry, were smitten as with a palsy. . . ." What a palsy it was Macaulay shows in several passages of the deepest human interest. Well might Bacon say that the debasement of the currency came "home to men's business and men's bosoms."

We in Buenos Aires are now suffering the effects of a scandalous debasement of the currency, not brought about by coiners or by forgers, but by law, and there are actually men among us who seek to palliate these evil effects by debasing the currency still further, grinding the faces of the poor to bolster up the fortunes of mushroom capitalists and mushroom banks. Happily wiser ideas are beginning to prevail, and it is quite within the power of the Congress opened on Saturday to re-establish our currency on a firm basis, which would be most easily accomplished by first doubling the nominal value of the gold Argentine, and that of all other coins which are legal tender.

BUENOS AYRES ROWING CLUB.

Motto: Alter schuzt vor Torheit nicht.

Mr. Editor,

When one "Gray beard" declares that "los Alemanes" does not mean "los Alemanes" but something else—by the following lines of his correspondence one might be induced to think the words mean the 'rowdies'—another gray beard asks the meeting to give up common sense, approving beforehand all and any proceeding of the Committee, past, present and future, even if it be arbitrary, which means preaching "incondicionalismo," well, then, we think that the time has come for younger elements to replace the worn out.

The suggestion and complaint book of the Club could give ample proof—if such were necessary—that gray hair (and beards) are not always a guarantee against boyish behaviour.

Now, as to retiring to the background for having rendered ourselves unsympathical to some people by defending a just cause, although unpopular, well—we wont!

Some of Them.

ARGENTINE FOOTBALL LEAGUE.

The "League" competition has now been properly started, and the following table will show those interested how the competing clubs now stand:—

Clubs.	Matches.	Points.
St. Andrew's.....	3	6
Caledonians.....	1	2
Belgrano	3	2
Buenos Ayres.....	2	0
B. A. & R. Railway	1	0
Hurlingham.....	..	..

As will be seen from the above, the St. Andrew's are at the top of the competition, having won every game as yet; but the Caledonians are also on the same footing, having only played one game as against the St. Andrew's three. However, the 17th will decide between these clubs, as their first league fixture falls to be played on that date. On present form the Caledonians ought to win, as the St. Andrew's men have only played one match together against Buenos Ayres, some of their players being in camp. Buenos Ayres, through a number of their players joining other clubs, have been very much handicapped at the beginning of the season, but before the competition goes much further Mr. Anderson's team may be expected to render a good account of themselves.

The Belgrano for the first season are playing remarkably well; and if they only can get two other forwards the opposing teams may get a surprise in the other fixtures. As regards B. A. and Rosario Railway little can be said, as the match with St. Andrew's was the first time the team had played together, and although beaten they were not disgraced, as the result will show. With the Brothers Archer in the team, the club will not be far off the top of the competition when the season is finished.

Hurlingham have not played a match, and as yet nothing can be said about them.

CONGRESS.

The Deputies met yesterday when Dr. Beracochea presented the following bill:

BILL.

Art. 1.—Let a special Committee be appointed to investigate the position of the State and mixed Banks of the Republic, which Committee is to report thereon as soon as possible. The report is to comprise particulars on the following points: the amount of the issue of each Bank and its deposits, separating the current accounts from those at fixed date, judicial accounts, etc.; the amounts owing by the Governments to the Banks and their deposits; portfolio; the state of the movement of the current accounts of various debtors; the ends and form of the realisation of the portfolio and guarantee of the issue, and the service of the National Government on public securities created under the Guaranteed Banks' Law; the form of management and method of administration.

Art. Such committe is to consist of 5 Deputies, one of them acting as Chairman.

Art. 3. The investigation ordered by Article 1 will include the right of inspecting documents and accounts in the "Caja de Conversion."

Art. 4. The Senate is invited to associate itself with this enquiry, and to appoint a Committee to proceed conjointly with the Committee above mentioned.

Art. 5—Notice of this resolution is to be given to the Chairmen and Managers of the Banks so that they may be able to assist the Committee on this enquiry.

The Bill was carried, and Deputies Gilbert, Beracochea, Garcia, L M Gonnet and Molina appointed members of the Committee.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The week opened yesterday in rather a flabby way, although most people expected something rousing on the Bolsa. The fact is that the lights in Mammonish circles do not know what the dickens to make out of President Pellegrini's Message; and until they make up their valuable minds on the point, no fresh departure for better or for worse need be looked for. Nevertheless, at the second ring yesterday the Gold Eagle began to look as if he sniffed the trail of a rat somewhere. Telegrams with the salient points of the Message were sent to London on Saturday and Sunday, and what they think of it in the Modern Babylon ought to be known here to-day. They are all such optionists there that we look for good news.

Bitter cold, strong wind and Cabinet muddle getting worse was the news from Montevideo yesterday. Our neighbours appear also to be still fooling round in the vicious financial circle they have been in for so long. The latest reorganization scheme for the National Bank has fallen through.

We are thirsting for the scalp of the creature who set afloat the hoax of Mr. Astor's yacht "Grant" being in the South Dock and President Pellegrini invited on board. The whole story is a "bola."

Messrs. Huergo and Co. agents for the Houston line have favoured us with a receipt for £1 (one pound sterling) for cattleman Cleary's (Naposta colonist) passage from Liverpool to Limerick, paid by Mrs. M. G. Mulhall.

They had an invigorating shock of earthquake in San Juan on Thursday last, and the citizens have not yet recovered from their fright. The walls of the finest houses in the town were cracked, including those of the Escuela Sarmiento.

The weather was so wintry yesterday that it affected people's speech (at least we hope it was the weather.) One subscriber observed to us "Gold has gone up to-day in consequence of the gold weather." Hem!

We remind those of our charitable fair readers who intend to be present at the Boys' Orphanage meeting at the Irish Convent to-day that the Chair will be taken very punctually at 2 o'clock, as there is much important business to be got through.

ENGLISH LITERARY SOCIETY.

NOTICE.

A Special General Meeting will be held in the Society's rooms, Calle Cuyo 732, on Friday May 15th at 8.30 p.m.

Business.

To elect a President, a Vice President, ten members of the Committee, and three Supplentes, the Committee having on the 22nd day of April 1891 passed the following resolution:—

"That in view of the alleged irregularity of the election of the new members of this Committee, and in order that there should not be the slightest question whether these members were legally elected or not, this Committee hereby resign, and agree to submit themselves to re-election by another General Meeting hereafter to be called."

Mr. W. G. Bullin has given due notice of the following motions:—

1—That the part of Statute 9 after the words "have given" on line 7, be substituted by the following:—

"Written notice thereof to the Secretary who shall place it on the notice-board 10 days previous to the day fixed for said Meeting."

2—That Rule 23, as it now stands be erased, and the following adopted in its stead:—

"A General Meeting shall be called by a notice posted on the notice-board, and advertised in such of the Buenos Ayres daily papers as the Committee may consider necessary for at least seven days previous to the day fixed for the Meeting. Such notice shall state the business for the transaction of which the Meeting is called."

3—That in Rule 24 the following addition and alteration be made:—

The insertion of the following sentence after the word "Meeting" on line 6:—

"When it has once been ascertained that a quorum is present, the subsequent proceedings of the Meeting shall be legal, notwithstanding that the number of members present at any time may fall short of the quorum originally required."

Also, the erasement of the words "then present" on line 7 between the words "not" and "the," and the insertion therein of the following:—"Present within the time above specified."

4—That on line 5 of Rule 31 the word "previously" be changed for the following:—"Previous to the day fixed for said lecture, essay, or debate."

These camps are known in the plan "1881 de Meinecke" under the name of Diego Young, situated in the 18th Section of the Province, to-day Partido Gral. Villegas and are only half a league from the town of that name and adjoin the well known important establishments such as "La Palatini de Jacnisch," Duggan's, the Belgan Company's and centro agricolas. There was a very sharp reaction at the second hour, and as both gold and National Bank shares rose, rumours of emission were again in the air. How much foundation there may be for the rumours it is impossible to say until the attitude of Congress is known, but it is quite clear that the market, however much it may lend itself to the rise, is not ripe for a fall. The ounce opened at 59 and closed firm at 59.40, which gives an equivalent of 365 %. National Bank shares rose to 32.50, and closed firm. Catalinas and Constructors were weaker, whilst Cedulas just managed to hold their own. A small lot of Municipal Lottery Bonds changed hands at 30, and some Patriotic Loan Bonds at 61 to 60.50. Nothing else was done.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares to-day at the second ring :—

The Governor of Cordoba's message to the Legislature is a lugubrious document, as it shews that the debt of the province is $141,736,025 paper, against which it can only set off $124,694 paper and 1¼ million paper revenue, which is barely sufficient to meet the expenditure.

The sale is reported of 200 squares of canip in Gorostiaga, belonging to the late Mr. P. Garay, for $27,000, or say at the rate of $135 per square.

The Federal Judge, Dr. Tedin, has ordered the removal of the embargo granted to Mr. J. P. Wileman on the Rosario-Pigué Railway.

At a meeting of the shareholders of the English Bank of Rio de Janeiro, Limited, to be held in London on 21st inst , it will be proposed that, after due allowance for all bad and doubtful debts, a dividend of 8s. per share of £10 be paid, and, in addition to this, a bonus of 4s. per share, making a distribution for the year of 10 opo: also that £50,000 be added to the reserve fund and £15,000 be carried forward to profit and loss account for 1891.

Muy Señores Mios,

Tengo el gusto de comunicar a Vds. que las 4 maquinas de Esquilar sistema Wolseley me han dado un resultado satisfactorio y no quer a darles este informe hasta no haber concluido con la esquila de borregas. La maquina trabaja bien, esquilamos con facilidad cualquiera oveja por mas fina y arregada que sea: saca mas lana que la tijera y tiene la ventaja de no cortar, pero si en algunos casos rasguña descuidandose el esquilador. Estas lastimduras sanan facilmente, y se hacen en cada vez menos cuanto mas practica se adquiere. No he notado que se me hayan muerto animales por esta causa.

Convencido de su eficacia pienso colocar doce aparatos para la proxima esquila y creo poder hacer facilmente el trabajo con ellos. Puedo asegurar a Vds. que los esquiladores mas torpes aprenden facilmente, prefiriendo las a la tijera.

Pueden Vds. darle la publicidad que gusten.
